

Recommended Reads: 14th August 2020

News you may have missed...

- Gov.uk: New funding to double nursing apprentices and help deliver 50,000 more nurses
- Gov.UK: PM announces the 117 Trusts allocated share of £300 million to upgrade A&E facilities.
- The Carer: Adult Social Care Workforce Grows Again To Meet Increasing Demand
- Nursing Times: Minister rules out early pay rise for nurses despite protests
- NHS Confed: Mental health services face 'rising tide' in demand due to coronavirus
- Guardian: Government quietly drops 1.3m Covid tests from England tally

Recommended Reads

- Kings Fund: Quarterly monitoring report \(QMR\) 29: how is the NHS performing?
- ONS: High streets in Great Britain: March, 2020
- Guardian: Why did England have Europe's worst Covid figures? The answer starts with austerity
- McKinsey: Global Economics Intelligence executive summary, July 2020
- ONS: Coronavirus and the impact on output in the UK economy: June 2020
- Elder: Government coronavirus advice – where is it going wrong?": An Interview with Dr Robert Dingwall
- NHE: Consistent UK-wide methodology set to record Covid-19 deaths
- Gov.Scot: Identifying care home risks earlier
- GQ: How real are the NHS sell-off horror stories?
- NHSE: More accurate general practice appointment data
- OHE: Realising the broader value of vaccines in the UK