

Recommended Reads – week ending 16th October 2020

News you may have missed...

- Guardian: Hospitals in north of England fear worst as coronavirus admissions rise rapidly
- Guardian: Covid drives more people in UK to fund own operations
- Daily Mail: Lung cancer referrals down 50% 'because patients believe their cough is Covid-19 and self-isolate instead of seeing a specialist'
- BBC News: Covid: Nightingale hospitals in northern England told to get ready
- Pulse: GPs concerned for patients as labs still cannot process majority of blood tests
- BBC News: Covid 19: Care home visitor scheme to be piloted in England
- Guardian: English councils told to set up hundreds of Covid-dedicated care homes
- Guardian: Covid-19: England and Wales among highest per capita death tolls
- Guardian: UK doctors and health experts back Covid-19 'circuit breaker'
- Pulse: NHSPS hikes GP practice service charges to meet 'Covid-related' costs
- Gov.Scot: Care home visiting restrictions eased

Recommended Reads

- House of Commons: Unequal impact? Coronavirus, disability and access to services: interim Report on temporary provisions in the Coronavirus Act
- ELSA: The experience of older people instructed to shield or self-isolate during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Thrive Global: Empowering Managers Is the Secret to Engaged Employees
- NHE: Why health messaging is vitally important during coronavirus
- BIT: How can we support physical distancing in the office?
- NHS Providers: How cleverly structured staff banks can improve staff morale and strengthen the psychological contract between the employee and the employer
- Digital Health: 'Excel-gate' highlights need for 'quality technical capability' in NHS