

Recommended Reads – week ending 9th October 2020

News you may have missed...

- NHE: NHS becomes first national health system to commit to 'carbon net zero'
- Management In Practice: GP clinics face 'uncertainty' as NHSE confirms 50-64s 'may' not get flu jabs
- Gov.UK: Green social prescribing pilots open for applications
- NHE: NICE and SIGN announce guidance to address persistent effects of Covid-19
- Guardian: UK to buy 1m antibody home tests despite accuracy concerns
- HTN: National NHS system launched to prioritise patients on waiting lists
- Guardian: Hospitals must ration blood tests after issues with reagent supplier
- Politics Home: RCEM issues urgent warning as hospitals near capacity
- NHE: Sir Simon Stevens outlines five-part package to boost NHS Covid support
- Guardian: NHS to provide remdesivir to Covid patients after joint EU deal

Recommended Reads

- ONS: Young people's well-being in the UK: 2020
- SoR: Radical overhaul of imaging and diagnostic services recommended in landmark NHS England report
- Pharmaceutical Journal: Phlebotomy services could be run from community pharmacies to cut hospital visits, report recommends
- Management In Practice: NHS England plans community diagnostic centres to tackle huge Covid backlog
- Guardian: Ingenuity in a crisis: how Covid forced NHS trusts to innovate
- Thrive Global: Illness Isn't Weakness and Powering Through Isn't Strength
- NHE: Why paging technology is still crucial to major incident response
- C+D: DH: Only a third of English pharmacies registered for free PPE
- Age UK: Health, Care and Cash: Improving the lives of older people in Red Wall England
- Social Mobility Commission: The long shadow of deprivation - Differences in opportunities across England